

Michael A. Bergin

317-237-3870
mbergin@locke.com

Michael Bergin concentrates his practice in multi-party and complex litigation, including: industry-wide litigation involving asbestos and other chemical exposures brought as occupational disease or toxic tort claims; employment discrimination; reduction-in-force class actions; commercial; worker's compensation; professional liability; and products liability litigation. He chairs our Environmental & Toxic Exposure Group.

Client Industries:

Product manufacturers, construction contractors, and premises owners in asbestos and silica personal injury and wrongful death litigation

Awards & Recognitions:

- Distinguished Fellow of the Indianapolis Bar Foundation, 2006
- Indiana Self-Insurers' Association, Executive Director, 1978-1994
- Governor's Task Force on Workers' Compensation Reform, Chair
- Best Lawyers in America, 2008
- Indiana Super Lawyer, 2004 and 2005

Professional Associations:

- Indiana State Bar Association
- Indianapolis Bar Association

Assistant:

Paul Sanders, 317-237-3470
psanders@locke.com

Education:

- University of Michigan, B.A., 1966
- University of Michigan Law School, J.D., 1969

