

Daniel D. Bobilya

260-497-6005
dbobilya@locke.com

Daniel Bobilya concentrates his practice in commercial litigation, representing corporate clients in commercial disputes. Dan handles all aspects of disputes, including initial investigations, settlement negotiations, alternate dispute resolution, motion practice and trial. With strong ties to the Fort Wayne community, Dan has special insight into multi-generational family businesses, providing general business planning and risk management advice.

Client Industries:

Family-owned and closely-held companies and various corporate entities

Professional Associations:

- Allen County Bar Association
- Indiana State Bar Association
- Defense Research Institute
- American Bar Association

Assistant:

Lana Sexton, 260-497-6007
lsexton@locke.com

Education:

- Indiana University, B.A., 1997
- Indiana University School of Law-J.D., summa cum laude, 2001

Community Involvement:

- Junior Achievement, Member of the Board

