

Edward L. Holloran, III

317-237-3291
eholloran@locke.com

Ed Holloran concentrates his practice in product liability, insurance, pharmaceutical, medical malpractice, and general tort litigation. He has defended manufacturers of firearms, automobiles, agricultural machinery as well as other products in state and federal courts throughout the country. He also defended professionals in the fields of medicine, engineering, and construction among other professions. Ed is licensed to practice in Indiana and Florida and before the United States District Court, Southern and Northern Districts of Indiana, and the United States District Court, Southern District of Florida.

Client Industries:

Manufacturing, pharmaceuticals, health care, construction, government services and insurance

Professional Associations:

- Defense Research Institute
- Defense Research Institute, Young Lawyers Division
- Defense Trial Counsel of Indiana
- Florida Defense Lawyers Association
- Indiana State Bar Association
- The Florida Bar
- Indianapolis Bar Association
- Licensed Healthcare Risk Manager, State of Florida

Publications:

- "Medical Malpractice Litigation in Florida: Discussion of Problems and Recommendations," 26 Nova L. Rev. 331 (2001)

Assistant:

Katie Goletz, 317-237-3450
kgoletz@locke.com

Public Speaking:

- "Defending the Usual: The Doctor is Uninsured (or Underinsured) and Cozy with the Plaintiff; the Terminated Nurse is Hostile; Documentation is Questionable," TENET Defense Counsel Annual Meeting, 2005

Education:

- Indiana University Purdue University, Indianapolis, B.S. in Criminal Justice, minor in American History, 1996
- Nova Southeastern University School of Law, J.D., cum laude, 2003
  - Nova Law Review, Contributing Author, 2001; Senior Editor, 2002-2003

