Dan Strunk is an associate concentrating his practice in litigation and appeals. He has extensive litigation and appellate experience, including product liability defense, business litigation, trade secret and non-compete agreements, and professional discipline. Dan is admitted to practice in the United States Courts of Appeals for the 7th, 8th, and 10th Circuits, the United States District Courts for the Northern District of Indiana, Southern District of Indiana, District of Minnesota, State of Indiana and State of Minnesota.

Representative Matters:

- Reynolds v. Pennsylvania Higher Educ. Assistance Agency, 425 F.3d 526 (8th Cir. 2005), cert. denied, 127 S.Ct. 46 (2006). Successfully protected a groundbreaking bankruptcy opinion on appeal to the Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals and, ultimately, on petition for certiorari to the United States Supreme Court. Pro bono case.
- State Farm Fire & Casualty v. Aquila, Inc., 697 N.W.2d 636 (Minn. App. 2005). Obtained appellate court reversal of summary judgment. Appellate court determined, contrary to the trial court's ruling, that a natural gas provider could be found liable for the defective nature of its pipeline system without specific knowledge of a defect, and that Minnesota's statute of repose did not preclude recovery for damages caused by a gas explosion.
