

Joel E. Tragesser

317-237-3849
jtragesser@locke.com

Joel E. Tragesser practices law in the areas of intellectual property and business settlements, arbitration and litigation. Joel represents clients in state, U.S. District Courts and in U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals. He is a partner of the Locke Reynolds law firm and is a frequently requested speaker on the interrelation of technology and intellectual property.

Client Industries:

Technology, service, entertainment, internet, software, manufacturing and pharmaceutical

Professional Associations:

- American Bar Association
- International Trademark Association
- Tennessee Intellectual Property Law Association
- Indianapolis Bar Association
- Indiana State Bar Association
- Seventh Circuit Bar Association
- TechPoint
- Indiana Motorsports Association

Additional Experience:

- Franklin Pierce Law Center's Advanced Licensing Institute, 2002

Community Involvement:

- Phi Beta Kappa's Alpha Association of Indiana, Treasurer
- Genesis Church and Mission Uprising

Assistant:

Stephanie Addington, 317-237-3942
saddington@locke.com

Public Speaking:

- "Current Developments in Copyright Law," Indiana State Bar Annual Meeting, October 2007
- "Counterfeiting: A Very Real Issue," Indiana CPA Society's Anti-Fraud Conference, August 2007
- "E-Contracts," Business Contract Drafting Skills Seminar, ICLEF, September 2005
- "Licensing and Transferring Rights to Technology," Second Annual Entrepreneurship and Technology Conference, October 2002
- "Intellectual Property Rights," First Annual Entrepreneurship and Technology Conference, December 2001
- "Admissibility of Web-Intercept Surveys," CLE Seminar, Tennessee Intellectual Property Law Association, November 2001

Education:

- Wabash College, B.A., Phi Beta Kappa, magna cum laude, 1994
- Vanderbilt University School of Law, J.D., 1997

Personal:

Joel enjoys spending time outdoors and taking on new adventures. He recently hosted a Blackthorn event, which is a team exercise that leads the participants into unforgettable environments and experiences.

